

A Conference for Leadership in Catholic Schools

Meeting Christ in self and others will explore the challenges and joys we face in leading Catholic schools in the 21st century.

We are currently securing a number of international and local presenters.

Conference strands will include

- Seeking Christ in self and others
- Building leaders for Catholic schools
- Tours of the nation's iconic institutions such as the Australian War Memorial, National Gallery of Australia, National Portrait Gallery and the National Museum of Australia.

Hotel Realm is a relatively new Canberra hotel located on the edge of the Parliamentary Triangle. It will cater to the needs of principals, aspiring principals and their leadership teams of Catholic secondary and primary schools.

The aim of the conference is to host Catholic school leaders nationally and internationally to invite delegates to inspirational and relevant consideration of core business and values in our work. In Canberra's spectacular autumn colour, this should be a "must do" experience in the 2012 Catholic school leaders' calendar.

We invite you to express your interest in attending this conference by completing this flier and returning it to the Conference Managers.

We look forward to welcoming you to Canberra in April 2012.
